2018 Annual Plaza Membership
We need your support to keep moving the Plaza Forward. Our Plaza Partners receive exclusive member benefits!

CREATE.

CREATE. A variety of first-class performances to entertain the whole family year round. Located in a renovated schoolhouse built in 1916, The Plaza Arts Center offers a wide variety of entertainment in our 500-seat theater. The Plaza Alliance for the Performing Arts, or PAPA, offers performance opportunities for local talent and interests. Your membership provides financial support for concerts, musicals, plays, children's programming, and arts education for the community.

CULTIVATE.

CULTIVATE. An environment for life-long learning with a focus on the arts and history. Our partnership with Putnam County Board of Education allows 2,000+ children to enjoy curriculum driven entertainment at the Plaza. The Plaza Community Center offers a free After School Arts Program which offers a creative learning environment with activities for K-8th grade. Step back in time at The Old School History Museum which also offers a quarterly lecture series featuring our rich, local history.
